MEET THE NEWEST PLAYBOY PLAYMATE! The Howard Stern Show for October 21, 2004

YANKS LOSS MEANS ARTIE MISSES

Artie was really bummed out this morning because the Yankees lost last night, completing what the press is now calling "The Collapse" after blowing a 3-0 lead in a best of seven series. Artie was upset that so many of the highest paid guys on the Yankees were responsible for the loss. He thanked Kevin Brown and his $15 million salary for not going more than 2 innings. He thanked Javier Vasquez for his $10 million a year salary for giving up a grand slam on his second pitch of the game. And he especially thanks Alex Rodriguez and his $25 million a year salary for going 0-4 last night. Artie said that A-Rod gets all kinds of weird perks too, like an office and a jet. Howard wondered what a baseball player needs an office for? That's like how basketball players always get dressed up in suits and take brief cases to the games when they're not playing. Howard said he wants to make a reality show that consists solely on opening up basketball player's briefcases and seeing what's inside. He said that would be bigger than Geraldo opening up Al Capone's vault. Artie said the Yankees losing really hurt him because he has a great tradition of going out to eat with Uncles before the playoff games and getting drunk and having the time of his life and now it's all been taken away from him. Howard said he could understand that. Artie then put up with a bunch of phone calls from Yankee haters who rubbed the loss in Artie's face. Artie said he actually hopes the Red Sox win the World Series because he's

PROOF THAT EATING MEAT IS IMPORTANT

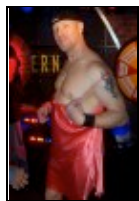

Howard introduced three girls who call themselves Vegan Vixens who were here to promote their Vegan cookbook. Howard said that he planned on making all of them get naked and make out.

One of the girls was named Sky and said that she is dating Shane Van Dyke, the grandson of Dick Van Dyke and has dated Charlie Sheen, although she didn't actually bang him and really just wanted to meet the rest of his family, especially Emilio Estevez. She also had a one night stand with John Stamos, who she said just had a normal sized penis and who also had what she described as a "fuzzy butt". Sky also believes in ghosts and thinks she's had sex with a ghost once. The girl next to her was named Kim and also believes in ghosts and believes she has psychic powers. She says when she gets really angry or stressed out she can make street lights turn off. The last girl was named Tanjareen who said that one time a boyfriend of hers broke into her house beat her over the head with a metal pipe. She said it was amazing that she survived the attack and that is when she realized she had special powers. She also claimed to have lost her virginity at 4 years old, had her first lesbian experience at 6 when her female babysitter made her play with her groin, had sex again at age 12 and received oral sex from Shaquille O'Neal years ago.

an American League guy.

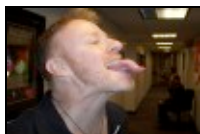

I'LL TAKE SYRUP WITH MY STUMP

Howard and the gang were trying to figure out how to run the up coming Amputee Beauty Pageant. No one knew if we should make appearance more important or their actually amputations more important in deciding what we're looking for. Howard thought maybe we can give them two or three scores, one for looks, one for amputation and one for personality. Chaunce Hayden called in saying he really wants to be a judge in the contest. He wrote Howard and Gary a really creepy letter about how much he's into amputated chicks. He said he can get off by having a woman just rub her stump over his groin. He also claimed to be able to get an amputee chick off by rubbing her stump a certain way. He said that one time he put syrup on a girl's stump and licked it off. Robin said she wanted to puke hearing him talk about this. Chaunce said it's a really big fetish and if Howard were to put the pageant on the internet he'd have like 50,000 people buy it. He called these people who are into amputation fetishes "devotees". Everyone was pretty much disgusted by what he had to say. Howard went back to trying to set parameters for the game. There is one really hot girl but all she's missing is half her pinkie so they decided that didn't count. Artie said all eh cared about was not having a bunch of whiners in the contest. Artie said he didn't want to hear something like, "Wah, wah, wah, I have fake teeth and no right arm, wah wah wah, I have no right let, wah, wah wah?".

THE FEUD NO ONE CARES ABOUT

High Pitch Erik called in to complain that Zolar was putting out personal information about him on the Bulletin Board. Howard said he might have to start thinking about taking the board down because it's too out of control. No one can get along there and Howard is tired being everyone's "daddy", telling everyone to Robin told the girls they better just eat meat at this point because they sounded as if being a vegan was driving them all crazy.

GIRLS MAKE OUT, MEAL WORMS SAVED!

Howard told the Vixens that they could get plugs if they got topless and made out with each other. When they refused, Howard showed them a hamster cage and had Doug Goodstein threaten to sprinkle a poison in there called "Cruelty" to kill the hamster is they all didn't get naked right there. The girls screamed and begged, saying they'd get in bathing suits!! Then Doug grabbed the hamster out of the cage (but he actually grabbed a stuffed toy) and threatened to smother it to death unless one of the girls showed her boobs.

Tanjareen reluctantly agreed and flashed her boobs. Then Howard got the girls to kiss each other to save a bunch of meal worms and moon him to save some crickets. After that Howard let them plug whatever they wanted. The girls also said they wanted to take all the animals home with them so Howard let them. Then the girls for some reason insisted they do a cheer they wrote last night so Howard let them. After the cheer Artie sarcastically said he was shocked that they were able to come up with all that in one night.

MISSING OUT ON THE MELROSE LARRY MEDIA BLITZ

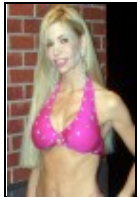

So it's been about three years since Melrose Larry Green has been banned from the show but he still calls all the time either begging to be let back on or complaining about who he thinks is keeping him off the show or acts angry and says he doesn't want to be on anymore. Gary said he literally has left hundreds of messages here and calls Doug Goodstein all the time too. Howard played some of the messages Melrose left him over the course of a day or two, all having to do with the book he wrote about why he thinks the Clintons should be in jail. Howard said he published that book himself. In the first message, saying that the only major media he plans on doing to promote his book is the behave and things like that. Erik said that Zolar ruined his stand up act the other night when he ran up on stage and pulled his pants down in the middle of his act. Erik said he was doing his KC impression when it happened. Howard asked him what joke he was doing so Erik did his impression and said "Do you know what I hate? When my mom calls me KC because it rhymes with gay". Howard and Artie told him that Zolar pulling down his pants was way funnier than that joke. Howard mentioned Erik's exclusive interview on Howardstern.com and said that he thought the hot chicks that came in with 50 Cent and G Unit were really hot and the pictures were really good. Robin was also really impressed with the pictures on the site and said Jason Kaplan is doing a good job with just a cheap little camera.

E-MAIL

Howard read some email that came in. Here are some of the things people had to say, paraphrased a little:

- A lot of people didn't like the pictures of Shaune Bagwell on the website. They said she looked like she had way too much plastic surgery done. Howard said he likes girls that get a lot of work done.

- One emailer said that Ozzy and Sharon Osbourne are on his top 5 list of all time favorite guests. Howard agreed.

- One emailer pointed out that General Zod from Superman II is also the voice of Jor-El on Smallville. Howard was talking about him yesterday because he wondered if he would attend Christopher Reeve's memorial service. The emailer seemed to think so, asking what else does that guy have to do?

- Some people suggested Howard buy a bidet so the next time he's worried that he's too smelly down there to get oral he can go clean himself off fast. Howard said he didn't like the idea of having a bidet though.

Howard Stern Show and Jimmy Kimmel. He said he won't be going on Leno or Letterman. Everyone laughed at that. Then he left another message claiming that his book is in its third print and that he's rooting for Bush for president. Howard said that means Melrose has printed three copies of his books. Artie said Kinkos must be busy. Melrose also said that he thinks Michael Moore is a traitor to this country and that payback is a bitch. Then he left a very angry one where he was cursing all over it saying he's going on every radio show he can because he has a book to sell and product to move and has to earn a living. He said his media blitz was going to start right after Labor Day. Robin says she guessed she must have missed it.

A PORN DREAM COME TRUE

Jillian Grace, the girl whose mother wrote to the show asking for help to get her in Playboy came in today. She was on the show a few months ago to do a Playboy Evaluation and the photo editor for Playboy, Kevin Kuster, thought she might actually be hot enough for Playboy so they took some test shots of her and had her come out to the Playboy mansion. Today Kevin had some exciting news for her? Jillian is going to be Miss March 2005!! Jillian was so excited she started crying. Even E! producer Robin Radzinski started crying for her. Artie Lange kept mocking her poor, home town boyfriend who will have to hear about her dating Fred Durst and 50 Cent. He kept laughing and calling her Mrs. Bagwell among other names.

Jillian said that she had already been invited up to Hugh Hefner's bedroom but has declined so far. She also met Jon Lovitz at the Playboy Mansion and Bruce Willis when she went to a club with Hef. Jillian also admitted her relationship with her boyfriend is strained right now and that they have a lot to talk about because he's having a difficult time handling all of the things Jillian is going through. Jillian said that she didn't shave completely for Playboy test shoots and her mom thought she shaved too much off. Kevin then gave Howard a certificate and badge making him a Deputy Editor for Playboy. Artie asked for a moment of silence for Jillian's probably soon-to-be ex-boyfriend.
