

Actress TANJAREEN MARTIN Goes From Sexy to Sizzling

Starring in Upcoming Cinemax Series "Zane's The Jump Off" and Award-Winning Web Series "The Celibate Nympho Chronicles"

April 12, 2012

Hollywood, CA – Actress TANJAREEN MARTIN takes sexy to a whole new level in the highly-anticipated Cinemax series “Zane’s The Jump Off” and with her award-winning web series “The Celibate Nympho Chronicles.”

Brought to you by erotica author Zane and set to premiere on Cinemax in Fall 2012, “Zane’s The Jump Off” follows five frat brothers as they tackle the growing pains of life and love. Packed full of steamy scenes and shocking plot twists, Tanjareen bares it all as a Miami sportscaster who knows better than to fall in love with her long time friend and NFL star, Dmitri, nicknamed ‘The Jump Off’ (played by Amin Joseph of GI Joe 2 and The Expendables). The series also stars Joe Torry (Poetic Justice, Def Comedy Jam) and Gregg Wayans.

Tanjareen has been earning high praise as the creator and star of the sexy comedy web series “The Celibate Nympho Chronicles,” which follows the dating life Tweets of a sex-crazed model as she tries to hold-out for Mr. Right. The series includes guest star appearances from: Malik Yoba (Alphas, NY Undercover), Tony Rock (All of Us), Wesley Jonathan (What I Like About You, Roll Bounce), Rodney Perry (BET’s The Mo’Nique Show, Tyler Perry’s Big Happy Family), and Aloma Wright (Days of Our Lives, Scrubs). The series first premiered in Spring 2011 and swept the LA Web Series Festival awards earning Outstanding Dramedy Series, Outstanding Writing in a Dramedy, Outstanding Lead Actress in a Dramedy (Tanjareen Martin), and Outstanding Guest Actor (Tony Rock).

Known for her no non-sense style of humor, Tanjareen is thrilled at the opportunity to bring her brand of hotness to the screen, explaining “Most sistas are shown as either sexy OR funny. I created my ‘Celibate Nympho Chronicles’ to showcase that I could play both. And, I accepted the role in ‘Zane’s The Jump Off’ to show that Black love and sex are a beautiful thing that shouldn’t be frowned upon...and that natural, healthy breasts are something a woman can be proud of, no matter what the size!”

Tanjareen recently worked with Bentley Kyle Evans (creator of "The Jamie Foxx Show", "Martin", and "Love That Girl") on four episodes of his new show “The Rev,” starring alongside Tiny Lister, JoMarie Peyton, and newcomer John Petritz. And up next, she’ll reunite with Evans again for his new sitcom “Family Time,” starring Omar Gooding, Angell Conwell, Paula Jai Parker, Kristoff St. John, Shanti Lowry, Corey Holcomb and Richard Gant.

This Inglewood, California native has built a solid resume on the big and small screen. Her previous credits include the feature films “Miss March,” “Love For Sale,” “Johnson Family Vacation,” and National Lampoon’s “Cattle Call”; and television shows “Curb Your Enthusiasm,” “Without A Trace,” “Days of Our Lives,” “Girlfriends,” “According to Jim,” and “The Sarah Silverman Program.”

As a radio personality, Tanjareen has co-hosted over 50 episodes of “Speedy’s Comedy Corner” at Jamie Foxx’s Foxxhole on Sirius-XM, and she’s co-hosted over 40 episodes of “Chopping It Up Live” on DherbsRadio.com. Tanjareen earned a degree in TV and Film from California State University Northridge and enjoys putting her skills to work as a producer. Before producing “The Celibate Nympho Chronicles,” she Associate Produced the Russ Parr film “Love for Sale,” in which she also appeared alongside Mya, Jackie Long, Jason Weaver, Melyssa Ford, Essence Atkins, Angell Conwell, Clifton Powell, and Big Daddy Kane. Currently, she is developing the sexually-expressive comedy radio talk show “The Vixen Hour,” a vegan soul food cooking show “Eat Clean with Tanjareen,” and the urban magazine-style talk show “Black Hollywood Weekly with THE siSTARS.”

For additional information about Tanjareen Martin visit: www.Tanjareen.com

For “The Celibate Nympho Chronicles” visit: www.CelibateNympho.com

Spotlight PR